What We Do

We help totally awesome couples fulfil their dream of a unique wedding.. I mean a wedding filled with personality, love and fun.

We celebrate you and whatever it is that makes you a truly unique human.

We love weddings and feel blessed to share this special time with you.

Our brides want to look beautiful on their wedding day while staying true to themselves. We believe in enhancing a bride's natural beauty, leaving her confident and glowing on the day....that is true beauty.

Our creative ascetic is modern romantic inspired by vintage. Translated into soft creative hairstyles and natural makeup for the woman who doesn't want to be overly styled.

Beautifully you..

Rebecca Paris

Founder

✂️ Hairdresser 👁️ Makeup Artist 🎓 Educator

Hello, I'm Rebecca, aka 'Green Scarf Girl', a qualified hairdresser and makeup artist and educator, celebrating 30yrs experience in the industry. A self-confessed hopeless romantic, an eclectic soul, and Mum to two cats. I am truly blessed to have the best job in the world.. I am passionate about what I do and love being challenged creatively. I also work in conjunction with two talented make up artists.

Our style is Modern Romantic, and typically our brides want to look like themselves on their wedding day. We share that vision and believe a bride should be the most glamorous version of herself, staying true to who she is. We translate that into soft timeless hairstyles and natural makeup.

We work individually with each bride to perfect their desired look, our artistic style is Modern Romantic inspired by vintage translated into soft, natural and feminine styles.

Meet Our Team

Jasmyn West

Makeup Artist

I have been a Makeup Artist for over 10 years. I have worked in photography here and there but my favourite makeup service is Bridal. Weddings are so beautiful to be a part of, I love to be able to make women feel and look great.

In my spare time I like to keep myself active, so you will see me in the gym at least 5-6 days out of week. The beauty industry is very much a passion of mine, I love to try and review new beauty products. I like to keep up to date with the new trends and to be able to discuss what products I believe work best.

The best thing about being a Makeup Artist is to be able to see how happy women are when they look at themselves in the mirror once their makeup is finished. My philosophy is fresh, natural and still feeling like you.

William Costello

Makeup Artist

Hi my name is Will and I have had the pleasure of working with brides for over 20 years. Nothing makes me happier than when I see that look on my client's face that tells me we have created exactly what she imagined. I have been fortunate to get to know my clients over many special occasions, from being a bridesmaid to being a bride, and then christenings. I feel like an extended part of the family.

Our look is modern romantic, creating a look that is both contemporary and timeless at the same time. I am also fortunate to get to work with such a talented and inspiring team, our collaborative approach provides a calming and seamless experience on your special day. I look forward to meeting with you and helping you create the perfect life look for any occasion.

My most commonly asked Questions

About Rebecca Paris..

I have been in the wedding industry for 25yrs and have seen so many brides planning for their big day. And really, how are you expected to know how everything works, you haven't been a bride before! So here are some of my most commonly asked questions; hopefully they will help you with your wedding planning.

Are you mobile on the day?

Yes, while our trials are done in Newport we are mobile on the day of the wedding. We travel up to 1.5hrs from Newport in any direction (travel Fees apply), we also do bookings interstate or further away but accommodation must be provided.

How do I pick the right hair or makeup artist for me?

I recommend that all brides do their homework, as your hair and makeup is one of the most important elements of your wedding. You will be looking back on those photos forever so you want to be happy. There is an artist out there for everyone, spend time on their website and look at the brides on them. Ask yourself 'would I be happy with any of those looks? Also follow their Instagram, you can really get a feel for a person's style by this form of social media.

Are you the only one that comes out on the day?

It depends on the size of your party. If it's only 2 for hair and makeup I will come on my own. But if you have a larger party I bring my Make-up artist. In this instance I do all the hair and the bride's makeup and my makeup artist does the rest of the party. We can accommodate up to 7 ladies for hair and makeup.

Do I have to book Hair and Makeup together?

NO; although I do both hair and makeup, I do also take booking for hair or makeup. And am happy to fit in with any other artist you have booked on the day.

Why do I have to pay a deposit?

We don't hold wedding dates without a 25% booking fee. I only take one booking per day, and we are happy to book you well in advance. We don't take bookings without first securing your date. A deposit is a way of making sure you are as committed as the vendor is.

When should I book my hair and make-up?

I suggest starting to look as soon as you can as it may take you a few months to settle on one. We take bookings from 6-12mths in advance. We don't rush brides straight into trials before they have all of their styling elements worked out. That's not to say if your wedding is closer we can't accommodate you.

When do you do the trial?

I recommend 6-3mths prior to the wedding date. We don't rush brides straight into trials before they have all of their styling elements worked out. There is nothing worse than a failed trial or doing a trial before you know what to expect. Thanks to social media we get a very good idea of the type of work an artist does before booking a trial. Gone are the days where you only had a trial as a means of knowing if you are going to like an artist's work. And thankfully, we now have a much better conversion rate than what we did in the early days. You now get to sort through the artists and choose, making sure they match your style and the style of the wedding. And there is nothing more stressful than a failed trial, and not to mention the expense.

You will also want some really good pictures of your dress so your hair and makeup will compliment your look, so this will need to be firmly decided. By 6-3mths out you have locked down all of your styling for your wedding which help us make sure your hair and makeup will reflect your style. Also, the closer to the day the less likely you are to change your mind. Pinterest has been amazing for our industry, but it can be information overload and have you second guessing yourself. The wedding industry is constantly changing and you are always going to like something else, it's just the way it is.

What should I bring to my trial?

I personally like lots of information, as I find it helps me see what your preferred style is, weddings are not cookie cutter anymore so there is so much more scope to work with. Bringing pictures of your venue and styling also helps a person see what type of styles you like, and this helps them to get to know you a little better. So bring a picture of your wedding dress, hairpieces, pictures of hair and makeup you like. And everything else you want to share.

Can I get a quote?

I get this all the time and while there are some elements of your wedding that can be quoted as they may not differ from person to person, some things are harder to quote. As for myself, I don't give quotes out prior to the trial, as hairstyles can vary so much, but I have a price guide on my website so you can budget. But don't be afraid to ask more questions or send pictures if you need a little more clarification.

How long will it take on the day?

I usually allow 1hr per person for hair, and 45mins for make up. You will also look at finishing about 2hrs prior to your ceremony time, as this will allow time for getting dressed and having some photos. Your artist takes this timing into consideration in the planning of your day.

What happens if an artist is sick on the day?

We do our best to make sure we are there for you on the day, and in the case of some unforeseen illness, we will replace our artist with an equally talented artist. I personally have never cancelled a wedding or not turned up on the day.
